[Special Dispatch to the Chicago Tribune,]
Sr. Lovas, Priday, Doc. 30.
A plot has been discovered among the inimates of the Gratlot street prison, to escape. Among the Christmas gifts sent to the prisoners last Monday, were a number of saws, dies, small cords and other implements of escape, conceased in turkeys, chickens, bread, cake, &c. The prisoners were closely whiched and the ringleaders in the plot put in lrons. ed Adjutant General of the State by Governor

New York, Friday, Dec. 30 .- The Tion cover of the guns of that work, as they were so near that the guns could not be depressed sufficiently to take effect upon them. They charged a redoubt and captured a flar. One of their number crept up to an angle of the fort, and shot a mounted orderly who had just arrived with dispatches and captured his dispatches and the mule he rode. Soon afterwards a company deployed to the right, and captured over 200 rebels who were marching down a road. In the meantime other regiments landed and formed in line, making in all about 3,000, out of the 7,000 in the expedition. Another regiment was sent to follow the 1920 K Y, but was ordered to return after skirmishing a little with the careny in the woods in the direction of Half-Moon battery, interactioned as 10 th a recommended.

rouble Among the Traitors-Bum-blings Among the Hebs-Southers News of the War,

New York, Friday, Dec. 30.—The Richmond papers are in great tribulation concerning the situation of affairs and their continued reverse. The Richmond Enguirer strongly urges that Jeff. Davis be deposed as Commander-in-Chief of the rebel armies until the General Lee be made Generalisation. In reply, the Sessions, Jeff. Davis 'organ, says no important enterprise is undertaken without consulting Lee. The Econosier slos urges the elevation of Lee, saying both Confederates and Federals will feel that a strong. and sically hand is laid upon the wheel—that it means business and battle, and will make their arrangements accordingly. "This," says the Economier, "is on the surposition that Mr. Davis is capable of an act so sane and wise, which may be greatly doubted."

The laisest rebel newspapers received constain a manifesto from Jeff Davis, giving notice that the pirate Bennett J. Burley, concerned in the capture of vessels on Lake Eric, and an attempt to selze the United States streamer Michigan, and liberate the rebel prisoners on Johnson's Island, who was recently released from arrest in Toronto, is a regularly commissioned officer in the rebel navy, and was dispatched from Richmond specially for the purpose of executing the work which he endosvored to carry out.
